WESTON A QUITTER

ON TURKEY AND PIE.

With Legs Exceptional For Endurance, Stomach, He Says, Is Ordinary.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—"I am thankful for this iron constitution which enabled me to complete my long walk, and am thankful for the kindly manner in which the people here received me, but for goodness sake, tell them to cut out invitations to eat turkey," said Edward Weston yesterday.

"It has been nothing but turkey, cranberries, celery and mince pies over and over again. When it comes to a case of human endurance with these old legs I am ready for any one, but I never posed as anything out of the ordinary with my stomach. I must be more careful of that than of anything else."

"The stomach is the boiler of the human system, and if not properly regulated will cause as much damage as the steel boiler running the machinery in a building. We are all glad for Thanksgiving day, but my next walk will not end right before that occasion, if I can help it."

HUMMEL MAY DIE

SOON, SAYS DOCTOR.

Former Lawyer in Prison Too Weak for Thanksgiving Feast, Plans New Life.

New York, Nov. 30.—"Abe Hummel is suffering from nephritis in an advanced stage," said Dr. Richard M. Land. Dr. Land has attended the former lawyer daily for several months. "It has spread to his heart," continued Dr. Land, "and I have to visit him three or four times a day to keep him alive. At best I believe he cannot live more than two years. But he may pass away at any time."

"He is a good patient, accepting every order without protest. He is quiet and hardly speaks, except to answer direct questions. He lies hours planning his life after he is released from prison. He hopes, I believe, from things he has said to me, to rehabilitate himself in the eyes of his old friends."

Hummel was too weak to partake of the Thanksgiving feast or even to listen to the programme which followed it. Hummel has begun to fear that all his friends have deserted him. He has few visitors.

The prison authorities declare the only favors Hummel has had were those granted to other prisoners in the hospital ward. His term, in consideration of good behavior, will expire next March. If Hummel is able he hopes to go abroad.

ONLY EMERGENCY BILL,

IF ANY, SAYS ALLISON

Senator Thinks Plan for Asset Currency Will Not Go Through.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—Senator Allison, discussing the outlook for currency legislation yesterday, predicted that if Congress did anything at all it would be in legislation for emergency currency alone. He said much would depend on financial conditions, and whether the present stringency continued.

"I think it likely the present trouble will be over, in ten days," said Senator Allison. "If it keeps on, then it will be necessary to enact some measures providing for emergency currency."

Asked whether he thought there was prospect of legislation for asset currency along the lines of the Fowler bill and similar proposed measures, the senator said he thought it doubtful whether Congress would pass any bill of this nature.

HARTFORD'S COSTLY

STONE BRIDGE OPEN.

Spans Connecticut in Nine Granite Arches and Is Without a Draw.

Hartford, Nov. 30.—A stone bridge of massive proportions and architecturally as imposing as any in New England, spanning the Connecticut river, was opened to traffic yesterday. It is a permanent structure in place of the old Connecticut river bridge burned in 1835, and was erected at a cost of $1,700,000. The approach has been made into a boulevard over the sites of many structures which had played a part in the early history of the city, and the expenditure in this respect has reached very nearly three quarters of a million of dollars. The bridge is of nine granite arches, 1,192 feet long and is without a draw. The erection of the bridge is of more than ordinary moment to Connecticut, for it emphasizes the passing of toll bridges over this great stream.

KING'S COUSIN KIDNAPPED,

TORTURED, AND ROBBED.

Marquis Cito's Chief Captor Was an Italian Policeman.

Naples, Nov. 30.—The kidnapping of Marquis Giuseppe Cito, a cousin and aide of King Victor Emmanuel, who after being tortured and forced to give up $500 was released by his captors, has caused great astonishment through the discovery that the organizer of the plot is in reality a policeman. On being arrested he confessed.

The British embassy is interested in the case, as Marquis Cito is a trusted confidant for several sovereigns, including King Edward.

TO DOUMA

Stolypin Declares the Czar's Autocracy

THE GOVERNMENT EXPECTS

To Outline All Legislation—A Coalition of Moderates Not Favored—Stringent Measures to Be Taken to Crush Agitation.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 30.—Premier Stolypin, in his ministerial declaration before the Douma yesterday, emphasized the idea of the autocratic power and the unfettered will of the emperor. At the same time he denounced the members of the extreme Left party, whose excesses, he said, had demoralized the capital.

The premier then outlined administration projects, including the reform of the Zemstvo, reform of the courts, legislation favorable to the orthodox church, and measures for the development of the army and navy to a degree commensurate with Russia's position among the nations of the world. Money would be needed for these projects, and this the Douma was expected to vote.

In conclusion, Premier Stolypin said: "The emperor has often shown, in the face of extraordinary difficulties, how highly he prizes the basic principles of the new regime of representative government within the limits established by himself. Nevertheless, the historic autocratic power and the unhampered will of the monarch stand out as the decisive possession of the Russian royal family. Solely by this power and this will, which were created to defend existing institutions, can Russia be saved in an era of danger and demoralization and brought to the path of order and historical truth."

The declaration was received with dismay by the Octoberists and the Constitutional Democrats, and with open exultation by the members of the Right party.

The announcement was made that the Douma is expected to take its cue from the administration in the matter of legislation, and the premier outlined what future legislation was expected. The statement is taken to show that the administration looks with disfavor upon any alliance between the Octoberists and the Constitutional Democrats.

After a short recess a general debate on the declaration was opened.

Premier Stolypin, who spoke in emphatic tone, began the government's declaration by saying that the pernicious agitation originated by the Radicals had today degenerated into open brigandage. Any weakness in handling this situation would be a crime, and the government would continue to crush disorders with an iron hand and insist upon loyal service from all state officials. The premier was convinced of the necessity of the speediest possible abandonment of martial law and a return to normal conditions, but the government had decided to make use of all measures possible to strengthen judicial procedure.

The premier recommended the inviolability of private property and the allotment of certain lands to small proprietors as a solution of the agrarian problem.

SENATOR LATIMER WOULD

LIMIT INFLOW OF ALIENS.

Will Urge Amendment Limiting Each Nation to 50,000 Annually.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Senator Latimer of South Carolina, a member of the immigration commission, said yesterday that he will introduce a bill for important amendments to the immigration laws early in the session. He wants restriction of immigration by educational tests, strict requirements as to certificates of character, and limitation of the number of immigrants that can come here annually from each country. He would limit the total to 50,000 for each nation.

He says the south wants southern European immigration restricted, and his amendments will accomplish that to the extent of several hundred thousand a year. The immigration commission will not report until a year from now.

FORGIVES WIFE WHO WAS #### SHOT BY HIS RIVAL

Husband Goes to Hospital, Where Woman Who Eloped Is Recovering.

Cleveland, Nov. 30.—Ira Walker, husband of Mrs. Minnie Walker, shot last Tuesday by Hilbert Friend, with whom she had eloped from Leighton, Pa., yesterday visited his wife. Walker came from Leighton with the Rev. Jackson Everett, his father-in-law. They went directly to the hospital and asked to see the injured woman. The three remained together all the afternoon.

"I know all now, and I have forgiven everything," the husband said. "The girl's father said: 'I am sure that everything will be well from this time on.' 'I'm so glad, I'm so glad,' the wounded wife repeated when her husband and father forgave her."

Mr. White has made three ascensions with Lee Stevens, and his trip yesterday was necessary in order for him to qualify as a pilot.

OUT WITH AGE

Prescription is Valued by Elderly People

RELIEVES CHRONIC CASES

Anyone Can Fix It at Home—Though Harmless and Inexpensive It Relieves All Forms of Kidney and Bladder Troubles and Rheumatism.

The great majority of men, and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that torturous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys which have become clogged and sluggish, falling in their duty of sifting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folks the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning.

A noted authority in a recent article stated that he has wonderful success with the old-time "vegetable treatment." He states: "Of sixteen cases of bladder troubles and rheumatism which have been treated with this treatment only one very complicated case failed to fully yield to its remarkable influence. It is the most harmless treatment I have ever found to clean the system of rheumatic poisons; remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system."

What he terms "old vegetable treatment" consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients of which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also during plenty of water.

This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and afflictions of the kidneys and bladder.

ROOSEVELT SNAPSHOTTED

WITH PIONEER OF PLAINS.

Stands Before Camera With Meeker and His Prairie Schooner.

Washington, Nov. 30.—President Roosevelt took time enough from his duties yesterday to have himself photographed standing at the west entrance to the executive grounds, alongside seventy-six year-old Ezra Meeker, and the latter's ox team and prairie schooner. The President received Meeker with great cordiality, leaving senators and representatives waiting while he walked bareheaded to see the old pioneer's outfit.

"Delighted to meet a man with the spirit to come so far as you have come with an ox team," he said to Meeker, who had driven the oxen all the way from Puyallup, Wash. Then the President asked a lot of questions about the wagon and the oxen and shaking hands with Meeker wished him good luck. Furthermore, he told the old man, who is ungainly in the old-oxen trail he converted into a great national highway, that he would favor memorial monuments marking the route.

New York Banks Waive Notice of 60 Days

Premium on Currency Falls Off—Money Withdrawn Two Weeks Ago Returning—Money Normal After December Payrolls.

New York, Nov. 30.—The Union Dime Savings institution of this city yesterday announced to its depositors who gave it the 60-days' notice of withdrawal demanded on October 25 that it would pay them now. Other savings banks in the city are expected to follow its example without delay, and, if this happens, by next week the premium on currency will be only a memory. Already it has dropped to a point where it no longer attracts hoarders, and brokers in Wall street say the money no longer diverted to sales for premium is again seeking investment in the stock market.

The banks, too, claim a fair share as depositors. It is evident from reports from many sources that the money withdrawn a fortnight ago is returning to its old channels of usefulness.

Money Normal After December Payrolls.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Frank A. Vanderlip, vice-president of the National City bank of New York, who is visiting his mother here, predicted that the currency situation will get back to normal as soon as the December payrolls are met.

"Interior banks are undoubtedly hoarding money," he said, speaking of the financial situation. "That is, they are running their reserves up to abnormal points. There is an entirely adequate supply of currency at the present time. All that is needed to unlock the currency situation is more confidence, and there is evidence of a returning of that confidence. Some currency is being shipped to New York from interior points. In my opinion, a few days more will end the premium on currency."

"There is a fair probability of currency legislation at the coming session of Congress. Sentiment on the subject of currency legislation is still uncrystallized in New York. For my part, I believe the ideal solution lies in the creation of a central bank that will have the power to issue and take on the fiscal duties of the treasury department."

"The effectiveness of co-operation through the clearing houses during the present crisis has emphasized the important part clearing houses may be made to play in our financial system. It is possible the legislation now will give enlarged powers to the treasury to be used in conjunction with the clearing houses."

Better Feeling in Trade Generally.

New York, Nov. 30.—Dispatches to R. G. Dun & Co. indicate a normal movement of reasonable merchandise, as the temperature has fallen in some sections, and holiday goods are beginning to move. There is still much idleness at manufacturing plants. Boston reports that wholesale business is still handicapped by finances, but there is a better feeling in most branches, and a return to normal conditions is anticipated shortly.

HERO COULD NOT

SAVE HIS COMRADES.

Maurelania's Head Stoker Nearly Lost Life in the Hudson River.

New York, Nov. 30.—In spite of heroic efforts to rescue them, two firemen of the steamship Maurelania were drowned early yesterday in the Hudson river, off the foot of West Thirtieth street. The men had shore leave, and on the way down the gangplank the man in the rear slipped. As he was about to fall from the narrow plank, he grabbed the legs of his companion, and together they splashed into the water.

Harold Kelly, the head stoker, hero of 10 life saving adventures, plunged into the icy water, but so dark was it that he could find no trace of either of the men. His comrades, fearing that he would be lost himself, called to him to come back, but he persisted in swimming around the pier until he was almost exhausted. Then he called for a rope. Several were thrown, but they fell short, and he was about to sink when a life preserver was thrown to him.

RIVERS SWOLLEN BY RAINS.

New Hampshire Streams Are Nearing the Danger Point.

Manchester, N. H., Nov. 30.—The rains and snows of the past week have brought New Hampshire rivers to a stage higher than any reached at this season in many years. Rivers and streams all over the state have been swollen by the rain and snow until, although not reaching the danger point, they have cleared many articles from the banks and threaten to go higher with any additional snow or rainfall. The Merrimack valley has probably the highest stages in the state, nearly every well, spring and pond running at least bank high, and in some cases rising over the banks. Lake Massabesic is higher than for years, and a large volume of water is flowing over the dam. At outlet, where it is as high as it was during the freshest of last spring.

Insl, vice-president of the American Tobacco company, given yesterday in the government's action to dissolve the tobacco combine. Replying to J. C. MacReynolds, the government's counsel, Mr. Hill said that the Wells Whitehead company had sent out its goods bearing a union label. "Did not that imply to the trade that the American Tobacco company had no connection with the Wells Whitehead company?" asked Mr. MacReynolds. "I can't say that it did," replied the witness.
